

Intro to Public Speaking

Never underestimate the power of knowing how to use your voice!

Public speaking skills are an essential ingredient for success. When we feel comfortable using our voices, we are empowered to advocate for ourselves, for our communities, and for the causes we care about.

The Introduction to Public Speaking program provides students with a strong foundation to become public speakers. It provides a variety of useful tips and tricks, from how to improve speaking style to strategies for persuading an audience.

Self-Directed Program

Introduction to Public Speaking includes 8 modules designed to make students more confident, more capable of structuring an argument, and more thoughtful about the topics they approach. Lessons take approximately 10-15 minutes each to complete for a total of 1.5 hours.

Topics Include

- ▶ Persuasion & Credibility
- ▶ Brainstorming & Organization
- ▶ Building Valid Arguments
- ▶ Developing Personal Style
- ▶ Avoiding Filler Words
